ANTON CHEREDNICHENKO

CTO

MANAGEMENT + TECH

With extensive international experience, I've led startups and impactful tech projects, bridging strategy, technology, and team management to drive business growth. Combining an Executive MBA with hands-on expertise in system architecture, operations scaling, and cross-functional leadership, I align technology with organizational goals.

Fluent in multiple languages and adept in multicultural environments, I deliver innovative, scalable solutions that address real-world challenges. My global perspective, dedication to continuous learning, and ability to build and lead high-performing teams ensure sustainable growth and lasting impact.
