CTO / COO / LEAD DEV FULL-STACK

PROFILE

MANAGEMENT + ENTREPRENEURSHIP + TECH

My international experiences have taken me through important tech and strategic roles in diverse settings, building startups and steering impactful tech projects with a keen eye on business growth. Armed with a sturdy tech skill set and an Executive MBA, I'm always on the learning curve, leveraging technology to simplify and solve complex business challenges effectively.

My lifelong passion for the tech world drove me to take up numerous challenges and helped me appreciate the difference between 'writing code' and building actual projects - end-to-end.

Fluent in several languages and comfortable in multicultural environments, I aim to deliver complete solutions that directly address business needs, drawing from my global journey to enrich every project I undertake.
